

WE CELEBRATE OUR HERITAGE!

El Paso's rich heritage is influenced by the blending of several cultures, indigenous, Mexican, and all America.

On February 2007, the Museums and Cultural Affairs Department (MCAD) will kick-off the WE CELEBRATE OUR HERITAGE! Series. An ongoing effort to feature the art and culture of El Paso's ancestors.

Spanish Heritage

MCAD, the El Paso Museum of Art, XII Travelers, and Danzas Espanolas are proud to present – WE CELEBRATE OUR HERITAGE – SPAIN!

XXXII Siglo de Oro Drama Festival

Feb. 28 – Mar. 4 at 8:00 p.m. Chamizal National Memorial -800 S. San Marcial – (915) 532-7273 – www.siglodoro.org

"Zurbaran, Murillo, Valdes Leal, and Antolinez y Sarabia:

Spanish Baroque Painting in the Siglo de Oro at the El Paso Museum of Art"
Mar. 1 at 6:00 p.m. Lecture, by Dr. Michael Tomor, Museum of Art Director. View and discussion of original paintings will follow the lecture. El Paso Natural Gas Auditorium, El Paso Museum of Art – (915) 532-1707

The Equestrian - Dedication Ceremony

Saturday, April 21, 10:00 a.m. El Paso International Airport - At the base of the Equestrian monument. (915) 533-6448 - <http://www.12travelers.org/>

Pies de los Gitanos - by Danzas Espanolas

Sat., Mar. 3 at 3:00 pm - ¡Bailamos! Discover the traditional world of Flamenco dancing. Westside Library 125 Belvidere - 581-2024

City of El Paso
Museums and Cultural Affairs Department
Love Your Culture, El Paso!

Mauricio Mora
Escena Teatral
2006
Acrylic on Canvas
20 x 32"

Bartolome Esteban Murillo (Seville, 1617-1682)
Ecco Homo, 1672-1678
Oil on wood, 43" x 40"
Gift of the Samuel H. Kress Foundation
Collection, El Paso Museum of Art (1961.1.54)